I am writing to express my deep appreciation for the services which you have rendered to this Agency and to the country. Your inspiring leadership, diligent effort, and wise counsel have been in great part responsible for the success of the effort in which you were involved and for the degree of accomplishment and devotion to duty shown by those whose activities came under your purview. They are deserving of my sincerest thanks.

It is to be regretted that changed situations resulting in a redirection of activity should dictate that our mutual effort should be discontinued. It is to be hoped that to a degree our accomplishments may have made such a redirection possible. Should a situation arise again where cooperation between you and the Agency would be desirable, I would be most happy to see such cooperation resumed.

Sincerely,
